

FACULTY MASTER'S PROGRAMS

While serving as the Faculty Master at Garrett House, where I lived with my family at the center of the Whittier College campus from 1992 to 1998, I organized and hosted more than 550 programs and dinners for students with scholars, musicians, actors, authors, artists, poets, scientists, corporate executives, and cultural leaders, including:

Alice Walker—Novelist, Poet, and Cultural Critic
Amy Tan—Novelist
Harry Crews—Novelist
Otto Maduro—Liberation Theologian and Sociologist of Religion
Montserrat Fontes—Novelist
Nicario Jimenez—Peruvian folk artist
Karal Ann Marling—Art Historian
Robert Detweiler—Professor of Religion and Literature
James Mathisen—Sociologist of Religion and Sport
W. P. Kinsella—Novelist
Georg Mirsky—International Economist and Political Scientist
Dr. William K. Rich—Health Care Reformer
Barbara Kinghorn—Shakespearean dramatist
Tom Sutherland—Former Palestinian Hostage
Erling Olsen—International Economist
Li-Young Lee—Poet
Al Staggs—Dramatist
Langdon Gilkey—Theologian
Horton Foote—Playwright and Screenwriter
Donald Sussmann—Financier
Dr. Howard House—Founder of the House Institute
James Farmer—Civil Rights Activist
Tess Gallagher—Poet
David Bevington—Shakespeare Scholar
Charles Kimball—Professor of Islam
Al Franken—Actor, Comedian
Donald Musser—Theologian
Gary Comstock— Professor of Ethics
Barry Hannah—Novelist
Will Keim— Psychologist and Student Services Consultant
Carlos Rodriguez—Composer
Bobbie Ann Mason—Novelist
David Wong Louie—Novelist
Mark Reisner—Author and Environmentalist
Marc Zicree—Author and Screenwriter
Mudcat Grant—Baseball Player and Entrepreneur
Hapa—Musical Group
Gerhard Peterson—German Consul for Economic Affairs
Kate Braverman—Novelist
The Brothers Kazimero—Musical Group
Joe D'Ambrosio—Book Artist

Stephen Pyne—Historian and Professor of American Studies
Jean Kilbourne—Dramatist
Cece Carlucci—Professional Baseball Umpire
Robert Brinkmeyer—Scholar of Southern Literature
John Shelton Reed—Sociologist
Michael Roberts—Executive Chef and Author
Ankica Petrovic—Musicologist
Jack Miles—Author
Michael Malone—Astronaut
Michael Abelman—Urban Farming Environmentalist
Stephen Jay Gould—Paleontologist
Victor Valle—Author
Paul Pribbenow—Professor of Ethics and Philosopher of Philanthropy
Sammie Haynes—Baseball Player
John Sedlar—Executive Chef and Author
Muldoon Elder—Art Critic and Dealer
David James Duncan—Author
Willis Barnstone—Author
Summer Hathout—Lawyer and Advocate for Muslim Women
Al Martinez—Newspaper Columnist and Author
Jerry Fiddler—Founder and CEO, Wind River Systems
Roger Neill—Composer
Jennifer Allen—Author
Yusef Komunyakaa—Poet
JONDO—A Cappella Musical Group
Fred Chappell—Poet and Novelist
Paul A. Turner—Justice, California Court of Appeals
Jan Jiracek—Pianist and Van Cliburn Competition Medalist
Clyde Edgerton—Novelist
Robert Fuller—Historian of American Popular Religion
Ines Talamentez—Professor of Religion and Native American Studies
Stanley Kutler—Political Historian
Robert Bluestone—Guitarist
Bowie Kuhn —Former Commissioner, Major League Baseball
Stephen O’Leary—Professor of Communication
Rodney Jones—Poet
Dennis Praeger—Broadcast Journalist
Katha Pollitt —Feminist and Essayist
Peter Reynolds—Author and Illustrator
Bob Pearlman—President, Autodesk Foundation
Luisah Teish—Professor of Anthropology and Women’s Studies
Jim Dodge—Novelist

More than 16,000 guests—students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends of the College—attended these events, as well as field trips to musical, dramatic, artistic, and sporting events in Southern California.